The screenshot shows a Mozilla Firefox browser window with the title "CF101: Editing Edukalibre document - Mozilla Firebird". The address bar shows the URL "http://edukalibre.org/moodle/course/mod.php?id=2&section=2&". The browser tabs include "test2: document...", "test2: urjc users ...", "Edukalibre", "CF101: Editing ...", and "Revision 525: /do...".

The main content area is titled "Adding a new Edukalibre document to topic 2 ?". It contains a form with the following elements:

- A label "url of Edukalibre system:" followed by a dropdown menu showing "http://edukalibre.org/stable/".
- A paragraph: "Through this form, you can add a new document or one already exists".
- Two radio buttons: "Choose one document" (selected) and "Create a new one".
- A dropdown menu under "Choose one document" showing "bug report".
- A text input field under "Create a new one" labeled "Document Name:" with the value "documento de prueba".
- A "Save changes" button.

At the bottom of the page, it says "You are logged in as Luis Cañas Díaz (Logout) | CF101". The status bar at the very bottom of the browser window shows "Done".

Introduction

Kyoto coming to force is a geopolitical ground shift. Russian ratification pushes this global climate protection agreement over the threshold required to become international law.
